

Get well and be well through Buckeye's behavioral health services

Buckeye is here to support you when you need a place to turn for mental health and/or substance abuse help. We help members with anxiety, depression, bipolar disorder, substance abuse and much more by connecting them with mental health specialists and the services they need to get well and be well.

Buckeye's behavioral health services have you covered.

Your health plan covers a wide range of behavioral health services such as individual, group and family counseling, access to a 24/7 crisis line, substance use disorder residential treatment and much more. Check your Member Handbook for a full list of covered services.
