First time screening? You're not alone.

More than half of new cervical cancer cases occur among women who have never or rarely been screened. If you've never had a screening, it's easy to start. To learn more, visit BuckeyeHealthPlan.com/CervicalCancer

It's quick: Screenings take only a few minutes to complete.

It's free: Buckeye members can get their cervical cancer screening at no cost to them.

It saves lives: More than 90% of women who receive an early-stage diagnosis from a screening beat cervical cancer.

Buckeye makes it easy for you to get your screening with:

GET $75

- $75 in reward dollars. Members, ages 21 to 64, earn rewards for getting a pap smear at least every three years.* You can spend rewards on things you need at Walmart® and Sam's Club® or on rent, utilities and more.†
- No-cost transportation to and from doctor's appointments. Call 866-531-0615 at least 48 hours in advance to schedule.

If you have certain risk factors, your doctor may recommend more-frequent Pap smears. Women 30 to 65 should also be screened every 5 years for high-risk human papillomavirus (HPV). Ask your doctor what's right for you.*
